Explanation of changes and other important information

We changed your return to include income from 2621956 ONTARIO INC. (T4A).

Your net income changed because of the change we made. We use your net income to calculate your Canada child benefit (CCB), Canada Groceries and Essentials Benefit (CGEB), and any related provincial or territorial benefits. If any of these amounts change, we will send you a notice explaining the change. We may also keep all or part of your next CCB, CGEB, and any related provincial or territorial benefit payments until any balances owing are paid.

Based on your spouse's or common-law partner's net income, we changed your federal spouse or common-law partner amount to $0. You calculate your federal claim by subtracting your spouse's or common-law partner's net income from $14,538.

Please see the "Summary" area for your new total non-refundable tax credits.

We calculated your RRSP deduction limit for 2026 based on 18% of your earned income for 2025, up to a maximum of $33,810. Refer to your RRSP deduction limit statement.

Your net capital loss for 2025 is $116. You can use this amount to reduce any taxable capital gains that you report in other years. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

As of the date of this notice, you have unused net capital losses from other years of $116. But, if you apply this amount to any tax year other than the current one, we may have to recalculate your unused balance. This is because different years have different capital gains rates. You can use your unused net capital losses to reduce taxable capital gains that you have reported. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

Your Canada training credit limit for next year is $250.00. This credit will expire at the end of the year you turn 65 or the year of death.

Our records show that you had to make instalment payments totalling $4,926.00 for the 2025 tax year. We charged you instalment interest of $65.08 because at least one of your payments was late or not enough.

We charged you arrears interest of $1,370.70 on the balance you owe. We calculated this interest to the date of this notice.

You can avoid more interest charges if you pay the balance due by November 23, 2026.

If you have questions about your reassessment or need help reading your notice, please go to canada.ca/cra-notices-letters.

RRSP deduction limit and available contribution room statement

References to RRSP contributions also include contributions to your pooled registered pension plan (PRPP) and to your and your spouse's or common-law partner's specified pension plan (SPP). For more information, go to canada.ca/rrsp or see Guide T4040, RRSPs and Other Registered Plans for Retirement.
